Then Shall Moses and the Children of Israel Sing

Recently, Sharon Stein came to my office and informed me that her & Sanford (Butch's) son Rabbi Daniel Stein, who will be our scholar-in-residence this coming May, had written a blog for the Times of Israel that she thought would be of interest to me. I read the excellent article and thank Sharon for bringing it to my attention, which prompted the following pre-Pesach article.

In the past couple of years, the Jewish world suffered the loss of three of our greatest contemporary Cantorial luminaries: Hazzanim Moshe Stern, Naftali Herstik, and Benzion Miller, all within a short period of time. Cantor Stern passed in April, 2023 at the age of 87. Cantor Herstik passed in September, 2024, aged 77, and Cantor Miller in February, 2025 also aged 77. I was privileged to know all three Hazzanim well and heard each of them often.

Cantor Stern was born in Budapest, Hungary, and survived the Holocaust. He became Cantor at Heichal Shlomo in Jerusalem which eventually became the Great Synagogue. He emigrated to Johannesburg, South Africa at a time when South Africa was attracting some of the world's greatest Cantors, where I first heard of him when I was a young boy with a growing interest in Hazzanut. When the great Cantor Moshe Koussevitsky passed away, Stern succeeded him at Beth-El in Boro Park, New York, one of the world's most prestigious Cantorial pulpits.

When I arrived in the USA in 1976, I contacted the Sterns in Brooklyn, who invited me for Shabbat, as they knew my late father well. On Shabbat during the Torah reading, he suggested I walk around the corner to Temple Emanu-El where another of the greatest Cantors, David Kusevitsky, brother of Moshe (he spelled his last name differently) was Hazzan. What a Shabbat that was for me, to hear two of the greatest Hazzanim, an indelible experience. It was at the Stern home that Friday night, that another guest, the late journalist Akiva Zimmerman divulged to me a 'family secret' that I (and my brother) had a sister, SHOSHANA RAISEL, of whose existence we knew nothing. She perished in Maidanek Concentration Camp in May, 1943 at the tender age of four. A"H. Our parents had wanted to shield us from the trauma of knowing about her. (That is a long story for another time.)

Cantor Herstik was also born in Hungary, near Budapest, to a long line of Cantors. Both his parents survived the Holocaust, his mother from Auschwitz. He served as Hazzan in Finchley, London, one of England's largest synagogues. He followed Stern's footsteps to the Great Synagogue of Jerusalem where he served for 30 years. His brother Chaim Eliezer is also a prominent Hazzan in Israel.

Cantor Miller was born in a displaced persons camp in Germany also to Holocaust survivor parents. His father was a prominent Cantor. He served as Hazzan in Montreal and Toronto, Canada, before following in Stern's footsteps as Hazzan at Beth-El in Boro Park, where he served for many years. Miller was amongst the first Cantors to bring Jewish liturgical music, in the tradition of the great Cantors of the past, back to Eastern Europe. He performed in Romania, Russia, Hungary, and Poland. He was regularly featured at the annual Cracow Music Festival.

Both Cantors Herstik and Miller have left sons who followed in their fathers' footsteps. Herstik's son is today one of the world's most prominent Hazzanim, serving at the Hampton Synagogue in Long Island, New York. His services are broadcast on Shabbat on Jewish Broadcast Services (JBS on cable or streamed TV). All these Hazzanim have served to perpetuate the so-called 'Golden Age of Hazzanut' which lasted from the turn of the 20th century till after the Second World War.

Rabbi Daniel Stein states in his article, concerning Cantor Miller, that "his life, from his birth in the Displaced Persons Camp to becoming a central figure in Jewish music, represents his particularly Jewish form of resilience and the power of song to elevate the spirit." I would say that statement applies to all three Cantorial greats highlighted in this column. Their song lives on through their children and their adherents who perpetuate their legacy. In his blog Rabbi Stein also highlights his personal connection to Cantors Herstik and Miller, the latter profound connection through Daniel's and Cantor Miller's great grandfathers who were associated back in Poland. Rabbi Stein also sang in the choir of Jerusalem's Great Synagogue under Cantor Herstik.

Please Don't Eat the Shankbone

On the few occasions when I led (or helped lead) a Seder, I delighted in terrorizing non-Jewish guests with the edict that all males had to be circumcised in order to participate. Now I learn that this is completely wrong. The Torah is specific that circumcision is only required to partake of the korban Pesach – the sacrificial lamb that reenacts the Jew's last meal on the night before leaving Egypt. However, the Ashkenazi tradition is to forego lamb on Pesach to avoid the appearance of fulfilling the sacrificial commandment in the absence of the Temple. The shank bone on the Seder plate is the symbolic reminder of the korban Pesach, but we don't eat it. Thus, the question is moot and my guests are safe. Interestingly, many Sephardic Jews take the exact opposite approach: they serve roast lamb on Passover to re-enact the last meal before the Exodus. So, which is it? Is serving lamb on Pesach re-enacting the Temple sacrifice or re-enacting the event on which the sacrifice is based? So many questions make me hungry. Let's eat.

Chag Pesach Sameach. Next Year in Jerusalem..

PESACH BEGINS THE EVENING OF SATURDAY, APRIL 12th

On Pesach we read in the Torah the Song of the Sea from Exodus 15 that was sung by Moses, Miriam and the Israelites after they crossed the Sea to safety following hundreds of years of slavery. The Song begins, "Then shall Moses and the children of Israel sing this song to God..." Note that the singing is in the future tense. It is as if to say the song of Israel is never complete, it will never be over. So declared my grandmother Pearl in the Warsaw Ghetto as I have written about innumerable times. Let us all keep singing, like Moses, like Miriam, like Cantors Stern, Herstik and Miller, like all Cantors everywhere, like all the People of Israel.

Chag Pesach kasher v'sameach!

(Rabbi Stein has served as Rabbi of Congregation B'nai Shalom in Walnut Creek, CA for the past nine years. He will be our scholar in residence May 16 - 18).

Siyyum Bechorim

Fast of the First Born

Thursday, April 10 at 8:00 AM In-Person & Zoom

Join us for minyan and study

Join Congregation B'nai Israel for a Siyyum Bechorim. Those who participate are exempted from fasting.

All are welcome; it is not limited to the first-born.

Because the first-born of the Israelites were saved from the tenth plague, tradition requires that all first-born Jewish males fast from Erev Pesach until the Seder. The fast is called Taanit Bechorim. However, the law states that when any Jew hears the completion of a tractate of Rabbinic Literature, it is cause to celebrate and cancels the fast.

Service of Reaffirmation

Sunday, April 13 at 9:30 AM In-Person & Live Stream

Since Pesach is exactly six months from the High Holidays, we are afforded the opportunity to reaffirm our connection to God, to Judaism and to Torah, not just once, but at least twice a year. Pesach, when we became a free nation, is the most appropriate time other than the High Holy Days to reaffirm this connection.

Our special service of Reaffirmation will be on the first day of Pesach, Sunday, April 13th, during Pesach Morning Services.

Eruv Tavshilin

There is a tradition to make an Eruv Tavshilin for the Holidays when they fall before Shabbat. Since we do not cook on Yom Tov for the next day of Shabbat and we cannot cook meals on Shabbat, we make an Eruv Tavshilin by setting aside two cooked items on Erev Yom Tov, such as a hard boiled egg, challah, meat or fish, and make the following declaration:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו
וְצִנְּנוּ עַל מִצְוַת עֵירוּב

Baruch ata Ado-noi Elo-heinu melech ha-olam, Asher kid-shanu bi-mitzvo-tav Vi-tzee-vanu, al mitzvat eiruv.

'We bless You our God, Creator of the Universe, Who has sanctified us with Your commandments, and taught us concerning the observance of the eruv.'

By means of this eruv, may we be permitted to bake, cook, keep dishes warm, light candles, and prepare during the Holiday for Shabbat.

Share Your In-Person or Virtual Seder

In most years, friends and family gather to celebrate the Passover Holiday, enjoy a festive Seder meal and the retelling of our ancient Exodus. If you would like to welcome a visitor, student or neighbor as an in-person or "virtual" guest, or if you are able to host CBI members at your Seder, please contact Hazzan Lichterman at ilichterman@cbitoledo.org.

"Shir HaShirim" - Song of Songs

Saturday, April 19, 2025

9:30 AM In-Person & Live Stream

Join us to hear Hazzan Lichterman explain and chant excerpts from "Shir HaShirim" in English and Hebrew from our beautiful megillah.

"Shir HaShirim" otherwise known as the "Song of Songs" or "Song of Solomon", is a romantic love poem from the Tanakh that is also interpreted as a love song between God and the People of Israel.

Memorialize Your Loved Ones Come to the Yizkor Service

Sunday, April 20: Services begin at 9:30 AM

Yizkor at 10:45 AM In-Person & Live Stream

Yizkor is a brief service held four times a year, during which individuals ask for Gd's blessing and formally recall the memories of their loved ones who are no longer alive. It is appropriate to quietly recite the names - Hebrew names particularly, or in English, of the loved ones we recall. It is recited for immediate family, but also for grandparents, cousins, and dear friends. It is also customary to light a yahrzeit candle the previous evening in memory of your deceased relatives.

Mehirat Hametz: The Selling of Hametz

The ceremony of removing leaven (Bedikat Hametz) is to take place Thursday evening, April 10, 2025. Hametz may be eaten until 10:30 AM on Friday, April 11, 2025. The Passover home atmosphere is created each year by the traditional practice of thoroughly cleansing the home, and by the removal of hametz, or leaven, in preparation for Pesach, as well as throughout the Passover days, both at home and away.

The term hametz is applied not only to foods, but also to the dishes and utensils in which the foods are prepared or served during the year. "Any manner of hametz (leavened food or utensils) owned by a Jew during the Passover holiday is forbidden to use."

Since conditions make it impossible to literally fulfill the Biblical command to destroy all leavened products, our sages instituted a practice called Mehirat Hametz, the selling of hametz. We are reminded of the necessity to divest ourselves of ownership of hametz, and make our home ritually ready.

The sale of hametz is conducted between a representative of the synagogue and a non-Jew. After Passover the hametz is repurchased by the Jewish community.

If you would like Cantor Lichterman to sell your hametz, please fill out the form below and return it to the synagogue office no later than Friday, April 11th, no later than 10:30 AM.

Don't Sell All your Hametz!

When cleaning out your cupboard and pantries in preparation for Pesach, consider donating unopened packages of hametz and canned goods to a food pantry such as JFS. Items such as crackers, rice, cookies, lentils, tuna, and peanut butter will be gratefully accepted by these organizations and passed on to those whose cupboards are empty.

Let those who are hungry this Passover season share in your celebration by receiving food that you might otherwise "sell" or dispose of. Please call JFS directly at 419.885.2561 to coordinate drop-off of your food donation.

Authorization for Sale of Hametz

THIS PROGRAM IS OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

I, the undersigned, fully empower and permit Hazzan Ivor Lichterman to act on my behalf to sell all hametz possessed by me - knowingly or unknowingly - as defined by Torah and rabbinic law, and to lease all places wherein hametz owned may be found. This transaction will be in effect for the duration of Pesach. This form must be in the office by no later than 10:30 AM on Friday, April 11, 2025. And to this I hereby affix my signature on _____ of _____, in the year 2025.

When to Count the Omer: The counting of the omer begins on the second night of Passover. Jews in the Diaspora generally integrate this counting into the second seder. The omer is counted each evening after sundown. The counting of the omer is generally appended to the end of Ma'ariv (the evening service), as well.

What to Say: One stands when counting the omer, and begins by reciting the following blessing: Barukh ata Adonai Eloheinu Melekh ha'Olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al sefirat ha'omer. "Blessed are you, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the Universe, who has sanctified us with your commandments and commanded us to count the omer." After the blessing, one recites the appropriate day of the count. For example: Hayom yom echad la'omer. "Today is the first day of the omer." After the first six days, one also includes the number of weeks that one has counted. For example: Hayom sh'losa asar yom, she'hem shavuah echad v'shisha yamim la'omer. "Today is 13 days, which is one week and six days of the omer."

2 More Weeks, Deutschland Kaput! by Jadzia Greenbaum

Janet (Jadzia) Altman Greenbaum was born in Bedzin, Poland in 1925, the middle child of three. Her parents owned rental property and had a store. In 1939 the Germans occupied Bedzin and in 1942, Jadzia was taken to a slave labor camp. Over the next three years she was in several camps until she was liberated from Bergen-Belsen by British soldiers on April 15, 1945. She met her husband, David Greenbaum, in a displaced persons' camp. They married and settled in New Jersey where they raised four children. One of whom is CBI member, Ann Rosenberg.

This short inspirational memoir reads like a diary and includes many family photos. Be sure to read the accompanying related articles (June 8, 1980, Aug 31, 2010, and September 10, 2020).

If you are interested in borrowing items from the library, contact Cathy Sperling at (419) 841-1927 to assist you in checking them out.

CBI Hosts Purim ABBA Karaoke Shpiel, Celebration, & Dinner

On Thursday evening, March 13, 2025, CBI hosted its first ABBA Karaoke Purim Shpiel, Celebration, and Dinner. The fun-filled event was attended by 75+ congregants and friends.

The evening began with a short Mincha service in the sanctuary and then everyone moved into the Social Hall for the festivities. Attendees gave tzedakah and exchanged Mishloach Manot bags to fulfill two of the Purim mitzvot. Purim goodie bags were also distributed to Jewish residents of local senior living facilities.

During the delicious dinner, Cantor Lichterman led everyone in singing joyful Purim songs. He then read excerpts from the Megillah. With groggers at each table, everyone had a chance to cheer for Mordechai and loudly "boo" the name of Haman.

After the dinner, the dessert table was mobbed as everyone filled their plates with delicious homemade hamantaschen made by Miriam Beckerman, Cathy Sperling, Nancy Goldberg, Dana Greenblatt, and Angie Katz.

Paul Causman, director of this year's shpiel, gave a rousing introduction and encouraged everyone to sing along. Each person received a song book and the shpiel lyrics were shown on the big projector screen, "karaoke-style". The shpiel was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone and was a wonderful success! The ensemble cast of Paul Causman, Steve Goldberg, Mike Mallin, Jack Katz, Cheryl Rothschild, Diana Lipszyc, Meira Zucker, Cathy Sperling, Fagie Benstein, and Joanne Rubin, was outstanding and truly deserved the accolades received.

The full list of volunteers who helped with all aspects of our Purim Celebration can be found in 'Todah Rabah' section on page 4.

Please RSVP to Ellen Federman at efederman@sbcglobal.net by Sunday, April 20th.

A fifty-year-old Bridge game provides an unexpected way to cross the generational divide between a daughter and her mother. Betsy Lerner takes us on a powerfully personal literary journey, where we learn a little about Bridge and a lot about life.

After a lifetime defining herself in contrast to her mother's "don't ask, don't tell" generation, Lerner finds herself back in her childhood home, not five miles from the mother she spent decades avoiding. When Roz needs help after surgery, it falls to Betsy to take care of her. She expected a week of tense civility; what she got instead were the Bridge Ladies. Impressed by their loyalty, she saw something her generation lacked. Facebook was great, but it wouldn't deliver a pot roast.

Tentatively at first, Betsy becomes a regular at her mother's Monday Bridge club. Through her friendships with the ladies, she is finally able to face years of misunderstandings and family tragedy, the Bridge table becoming the common ground she and Roz never had.

By turns darkly funny and deeply moving, The Bridge Ladies is the unforgettable story of a hard-won—but never-too-late—bond between mother and daughter.

CBI Tour of the Toledo Museum of Art - Tour Guided by Stacey Kripke

Thursday, April 24, 2025, 2:00 PM at Toledo Museum of Art, 2445 Monroe St., Toledo

This tour at the Toledo Museum of Art will focus on the special exhibit of paintings by the eminent Dutch flower still life painter Rachel Ruysch (1664–1750).

At a time when women's access to careers as professional artists was severely limited, Ruysch nevertheless became highly successful and widely renowned. She was born into a well-to-do family and was the daughter of the renowned professor of anatomy and botany Frederik Ruysch, who apprenticed her to one of the premier flower still life painters of the day. She married a painter, had eleven children, became the first female member of the artist's guild in The Hague and a court artist to one of the most important German nobles, won the lottery (twice!), was among the highest-paid artists of her time, and continued to paint until she was 83 years of age.

Despite the great success she experienced during her lifetime, Ruysch has never received the attention she deserves. The exhibition explores her fascinating life and work for the first time and juxtaposes them with those of her sister Anna, who was an accomplished flower painter in her own right but is all but forgotten today.

We invite you to discover Rachel Ruysch's masterful brushwork, her illusionistic depictions of the natural world, the astonishing botanical diversity and teeming insect and animal life in her paintings, and how her works reflect the intersections between painting, nature, and science.

The Toledo Museum of Art also houses the Museum Cafe. If you are interested in having lunch before the tour arrive at noon and indicate so when you RSVP. Attendees are responsible for their own lunch expenses.

Tour cost is FREE for museum members, $10 for non-members and parking is FREE!

The tour group is limited to 15 CBI members. Spaces will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. RSVP by email to kbrody@cbitoledo.org on or before April 21st.

Notes from our Principal

Another school year is quickly coming to an end. We only have a few classes this month due to Spring Break and Passover.

We are fortunate to have another visit from the Israeli Shinshinim coming to visit us on the weekend of April 4th-6th. They will be at Shabbat morning services and at Religious school on Sunday. Local Jewish teens will also have to opportunity to hang out with them for pizza and havdallah on Saturday, April 5th. All of our students had the incredible opportunity to get to know them on their visit last month.

Grades 6th and up will be heading to the Zekelman Holocaust Center in Farmington Hills, MI on the morning of May 4th leaving at 7:30 am and returning to Shomer Emunim around 12:30 pm. This is a joint trip, generously sponsored through The Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo.

This year, we are having Confirmation during our morning Shabbat services. I hope you can all join us for this special Shabbat Confirmation service on Saturday, May 10th. We want to extend a mazel tov to Dylan and Harris Merer, Cobin Katz, and Hunter Smith on their Confirmation.

Have a wonderful Pesach!

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo LiveSecure Initiative

Dear Friends,

JewishToledo has an exciting opportunity to receive $85,000 in grant funds in each of the next three years from Jewish Federations of North America LiveSecure Matching Security Program. To receive this funding, JFGT must raise $85,000 in each of the next three years to match the national grant.

To meet the match requirement, our community is launching the LiveSecure Matching Security Campaign. Every dollar you designate and donate for security up to $85,000 will be matched dollar-for-dollar by the generous grant, effectively doubling the impact of your contribution.

The LiveSecure Matching Security Campaign is endorsed by the lay leaders and clergy of Chabad of Toledo, Congregation B'nai Israel of Toledo, Congregation Etz Chayim, and Temple Shomer Emunim. JFGT has committed to directly funding at least $50,000 collectively, in each of the next three years, to these partners for some of their security expenses. All these leaders implore everyone to support this important initiative to help safeguard the security of our Jewish community.

Your support is essential in ensuring that our Toledo Jewish community remains a safe place for worship, learning, and connection. Together, we can leverage the power of the LiveSecure Matching Security Campaign to safeguard our heritage and uphold the values we cherish.
